P.C.:-

The bail application filed by the applicants has been rejected by this court twice. The learned advocate for the applicants submits that the applicants were on bail during trial. However, from 2004 they are in custody. She, therefore, prays that the appeal may be fixed for final hearing. She states that at this stage she does not want to press this bail application.

In the facts and circumstances of the case, we direct the office to add this criminal appeal to the final hearing board of the court taking up criminal appeal. Criminal application is disposed of in the aforestated terms.
